Jones on October 12th, 1901 and recorded in Book 81, page 327 of the office of Chancery Clerk of Lowndes County, Mississippi, and being leasehold property from the Trustees of Franklin Academy for 99 years from August 1st, 1821, renewable forever. Also that certain lot in square 29 South of Main street in the city of Columbus, Mississippi, said County of Lowndes and described as follows: Beginning at the Southeast corner of said square 29, and from this point running thence North along the Eastern boundary of said square, 66 feet thence West parallel with the Southern boundary of said square 125 feet; thence South parallel with the Eastern boundary of said square 66 feet to the street South of said square; thence East along said street 125 feet to the point of beginning which is the Southeast corner of said square 29, South of Main street, being leasehold property from the Trustees of Franklin Academy for 99 years from August 1st, 1821 renewable forever.

I will convey only such title as is vested in me, which is believed to be good.

This, the 9th day of December, A. D. 1919.

B. A. LINCOLN, Commissioner.

Mr. Bernard Collier led the way down to the altar. The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Francis Brady. Miss Brady wore an attractive taupe dress of georgette, with a beautiful picture hat to match. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. The bride was attired for traveling. Her suit was of brown peachblow with mole skin fur trimmings. Her hat was of brown beaver with plumes. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of orchids valley lilies and sweet-heart roses.

"The groom was attended by Mr. Hazard of Columbus.

"After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson left for Mobile and New Orleans. In Mobile they will visit Mr. Stephenson's brother.

"As Lucile Webb, Mrs. Stephenson was one of the most popular girls in Tuscaloosa. She moved here with her family from Mississippi a few years ago and has made many strong friends here who regret to see her leave the state.

"Mr. Stephenson is prominent in business and social circles in Columbus. The best wishes of a large circle of Tuscaloosa friends follow Mrs. Stephenson to her new home."
